While not mentioning the MoNamaras by name it was plain the dynamits explo-sion at the Low Arigeles Times building was the case referred to by Samuel Gom-pers, president of the American Federa-tion of Labor, last night, in his address before the members and guests of the Knights of Momus, or the "Knockers" Club," at the dinner in their wives, daughters, and sweethearts at the New Fredonia.

daughters, and swethearts at the New Fredonia. After describing the hardships the workers, including women and children, are compelled to undergo to make this country prosperous. Mr. Gompera said:
"In it not enough for us to sak ourselves where we are drifting? And when the conditions are such that men, fosibility or fanatically or criminally, take matters into their own hands at is not enough to take thought of the Fessil of such an outrage, but we should investigate the conditions that would prompt such insame revenge."

"Women to Burn."

"Women to burn' is the maxim of those who would exploit the women of our country merely for the advancement of private property. And after all the investigation of the siaughter, nobody was to hisme, be what we are told. No country on the globe puts so low a price on homan limbs, arms, eyes, and human in his country on the globe puts so low a price on human limbs, arms, eyes, and human how a price on human limbs, arms, eyes, and human limbs, exist him exist

Following a bass solo by Mr. Kinsella sight Mr. Gompers' address. Fred N. Whitshead entertained with stories about the able assistance of old maids. John Germann, secretary to Maj. Bylvester, then told several shorter in dialect to the delight of those present. He was followed with addresses by Capt. Bell and Thomas A. Bynim, vice president of the club. The ladiest of the club, which as usual, will be a stag affair, and will be given in February.

TO RESUME PROBING

Indianapolis, Ind., Den. II.—The Federal grand Jury will resume its investigation in the dynamiting outrages following the holiday recess itsat Wednesday morning. The case is well in hund, and District Altorney Miller has been working night and day since the recess to get other evidence of importance ready for the jurors.

It has been decided to return all of the indictinents at once instead of separately, and this is not expected to be compieted before the let of February.

Great secrecy is to be established with the reconvening of the grand jury. Mr.
Miller bas hitted that several other labor leaders "higher up" will likely come into the government dragnet and indictiments returned against them. The arrest of four dynamiters in Los Angeles will not affect here.
